Dedication

We, the students of Cambridge High and Latin School, in order to express our appreciation for all that they have done for us, dedicate this, our yearbook to:

Miss Ethel G. McElroy, Dean of Senior Girls, whose kind words will always serve as an inspiration for us.

Miss Mary P. Bligh, Dean of Sophomore Girls, who has unselfishly given of her time and advice to the students of Cambridge High.

Miss Helen Morton, who will always be remembered for her gentle ways.

It is our wish that these fine women, who have brought so much happiness and understanding into the lives of their students, will have many long years in which to fulfill their life-long ambitions.

Prologue

In a short while we shall leave Cambridge High and Latin to take our rightful place in a troubled and insecure society. In our four happy years here, we have been trained by our teachers to be useful to ourselves, our families, our community, and our country. We have made many good permanent friends and have had many unforgettable good times. It is the sincerest wish of all who participated in the preparation of this yearbook that it may serve as a lasting tangible reminder of our high school life.

Tribute

We take this opportunity to pay tribute to our headmaster, Mr. John J. Sheehan. During our four years in this school, we have learned to honor and respect him. While such a man is in charge of our school, we can rest assured that everything will continue to run smoothly and efficiently.

Tribute

Mr. Bramhall, beloved advisor of our Senior class, has guided our movements wisely and benignantly through this, our final year, at Cambridge High and Latin School. His gentle manner will always be a happy memory to us; and, all through our lives, his kind advice will guide us.

National Honor Society

Two years ago, the National Honor Society was introduced to Cambridge High and Latin School. The purpose of this organization is two-fold — first, to promote through recognition the qualities of Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service; and second, to reward students who have been outstanding in fulfilling these qualities. The members of this year's National Honor Society are fully aware of the honor which has been bestowed upon them, and will strive to bring nothing but credit to themselves and to our school.

The Senior Class wishes to pay a tribute to the late Geraldine Doiron of 248 Brookline Street who would have been graduating with the class of 1955. Geraldine attended Blessed Sacrament Grammar School before entering C. H. L. S. She died during her sophomore year on May 27, 1953.

As a part of the class of 1955, she will not be forgotten.

Popularity Poll

And here we have that long-to-be-remembered story: Who is who for "55."

Cute little Mary Cincotta and husky Paul White won top honors as the two most popular students in our senior class, which is no surprise at all! Our own adorable Emily Banks was selected as the prettiest girl and blue-eyed Bill Landry was chosen handsomest boy. Due to head the Easter Parade this year are George Toomajanian and Shirley Matthews, the two best dressed students at C.H.L.S. "55" also decided that the two most likely substitutes for Marge and Gower Champion were Paul Walker and Elizabeth Houlihan. Paul White and Pat Landry are the choice of "55" for the Olympic team. Yvonne Bradbury and Joe Corkery were appointed Class Wits, and Chickie Voto was decided to be the hardest person to get angry. Last, but not least, in the scholastic field, Franz Nauen and Jeanne Cronin were given the honors of Most Likely to Succeed.

Viewing the lighter side of life, Grace Kelley squeezed by as favorite actress and Marlon Brando, who is just "too much," walked away with our votes for favorite actor. Being "cool" we naturally selected the "cool" Bill Marlow Show as our favorite radio program and decided that The Medic is the show we like to view best of all.

Getting more educationally inclined (??), we think that "Dennis the Menace" is tops in comics.

Baseball still seems to be our favorite pastime in sports, dancing our choice for leisure hours, and English for schooltime. What can be better to dance to than the music of Glenn Miller's orchestra, particularly when they play Stardust?

So now you have it! I know that you will join with me in wishing these people the best of luck in the future.

MARY DALEY

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1955, after struggling through four wonderful years at C.H.L.S., are perfectly able to comprehend, remember, and understand why we do this deed, and do solemnly construct and draw up this, our last will and testament, and declare all other wills to be null, void, and without power to tend legal action.

- I To the class of 1956, the oncoming seniors, we leave the hand-carved desks and the artistically decorated text books, which are used in the fourth year.
- II We leave to our ever popular and understanding Mr. Bramhall, a lie-detector (for obvious reasons).
- III To our beloved headmaster, we leave four slightly worn statues which adorn our beautiful Latin Hall, to pass on to posterity:
 1. Venus de Milo
 2. Mercury
 3. Diana
 4. Minerva
- IV To those seniors who will begin anew next year as seniors and pretend to be P. G.'s, our heartfelt sympathy.
- V To Mr. Kenny, we leave a hot rod kit and a handbook entitled, One-Hundred Easy Ways to Start and Drive a Jaguar.
- VI Being a modern class, we no longer leave elevators, but escalators to the future classes at C.H.L.S.
- VII To Mr. Landrigan, we leave all the pupils who keep pencils on their ears.
- VIII To the biology classes, we bequeath a surplus supply of frogs and worms.
- IX To those teachers who conscientiously — but futilely — tried to instill knowledge into our foggy, befuddled minds, we give our deepest sympathy.
- X To a long-suffering C.H.L.S., we leave a few of our fellow classmates, who either got only half-baked during their four years under the Latin sun, or whose mothers consider them to be as yet quite too young to go out into the cruel, cold world.
- XI To a tired Mr. Hurley, we just leave.
- XII To our ever-patient Mr. Ronan, we give a dictating machine, complete with an automatic typewriter to help him do his work.
- XIII To our famed boys' cooking class, we leave extra-large Brillo pads with hidden compartments for files, with which they may cut their cakes.
- XVI To Miss Hartigan, we leave a new coffee-maker and a silver container for crackers.
- XV To Mr. McKenna, we leave an alligator-bound copy of The Handbook of Physics and Chemistry.
- XVI To the honorable school department, we leave this suggestion:

Install a system of traffic lights and whistles at certain congested corners in the school.
- XVII To Miss Dunphy and next year's honor girls, we leave all the boys in Home Room 331.
- XVIII We leave to all underclassmen a limited supply of Season Tickets, admitting each bearer to all Seventh periods. (Best seats to late comers; so come early and obtain an obscure seat.)
- XIX We leave a copy of How to Grow Tall to each prospective freshman.
- XX To the incoming cheerleaders, we donate a first-aid kit for all the accidents they might have.
- XXI We leave a new pencil sharpener to Room 217.

After taking into consideration the above grants, which we most generously and readily leave to our successors, and now having disposed of all our possessions, some of which we value and many which we do not, we believe that it would be best to legalize this document by our signatures. Given on the 10th day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and fifty-five.

History 1951-1955

Dear Diary:

It all began on the ninth of September in 1951. As one of the four hundred frightened freshmen in the class of '55, I entered Cambridge High and Latin and found myself completely lost in a labyrinth of corridors. The upperclassmen were so helpful — in misdirecting me, that is! It seemed to give them great pleasure to send me some place exactly opposite to where I had intended to go. But, such is the plight of poor frosh! Another freshman in our class was Mr. Amoroso, who, in his first year at the high school, organized a system of musical clubs that proved to be almost as intricate as the corridors. For the first time, the "Music Revue" was presented in March. So successful was this performance, that it was repeated to a very enthusiastic audience again in April.

On November 16th, a strange and terrifying sight greeted everyone, as weird invaders from a far-off planet, attired in blue spacesuits (commonly known as gym suits!), and without lipstick, ran frantically through the building with pigtailed flying! No human beings would associate with us poor, shunned, G. A. A. initiates! . . . and we could hardly blame them! All that we lacked to prove our unearthliness was a spaceship!

Early in January we were saddened by the death of our beloved headmaster, Mr. Timothy F. Downe. During the few short months that we had known him, we became familiar with the rapid stride, and discerning glance, as well as his equally characteristic quick speech, ready decision, and glint of humor.

Before I had realized it, Spring Fever had permeated every nook and corner of the school; baseball and summer vacation were in the air. One particularly restless June day started off in the usual quiet way, until soon after recess, a thundering rumble from 'way up there in the stratosphere (the third floor to us — now!) reached my ears, and the Year Books, with seniors behind them, appeared through a cloud of dust. As the seniors retreated from my classrooms, slamming the doors behind them, I thought "Ah, the gay, carefree life of a senior!" Alas, here I was, a sophomore-in-the-making, bidding "adieu" (we had become rather Continental by this time!) to all our friends, and closed the doors on that maze of corridors which had now become so much a part of our lives.

Dear Diary:

Sophomore — a magic word which struck terror into the hearts of the lowly frosh, but cut no ice with the upperclassmen, who still regarded us with utter scorn. I saw so many familiar faces, but when I looked toward the floor — Oh dear! — I stared with amazement at the white bucks that were walking around on feet, and which were so often accompanied by kneesocks! Fortunately this fad appealed mostly to the juniors and seniors, and I could never imagine that these gray-bordering-on-black — bucks and kneesocks would be worn by anyone in the class of '55.

"Football Fever" had replaced my Spring Fever, particularly as the date of the annual Latin-Rindge game neared. After cheering long and loudly, I was hoarse, but it was worth it because the maroon and white had toppled their arch rivals by a score of 14-7! The G. A. A. held its prom at the Hotel Commander on November 21. Why, I could hardly recognize our football heroes in their tuxedos and best manners, and how different the drill team members and cheerleaders looked in their gowns! The girls received pendants with the G. A. A. initials on them as favors.

As in our freshman year, the Dramatic Club presented the Christmas Tableau, which, as usual, was a beautiful program under the direction of Miss Hartigan and Mr. Guest. Throughout the year I was plagued by homework, and that bane of so many sophomores — "plain" geometry! However, the schedule was broken up occasionally by assemblies, and trips to room 226 for movies. The love of getting out of class to attend movies seems to be innate in every student, but most especially to sophomores! The production of "Curtain Time" and the G. A. A. Barn Dance were the top social events that swept us right along into the Spring, prize exams, which some of us were allowed to take, as in our freshman year, and then — vacation!

Dear Diary:

Whew! . . . being a junior has one disadvantage — two flights of stairs to run up before that eighty-thirty bell rings! TEMPUS FUGIT — but my feet didn't! And certainly time did fly during our junior year. Remember our first class elections? If some of my friends were among the missing, I could usually find them hidden under a camouflage of campaign signs! And really, the school wasn't supported by those posters — there actually were walls behind them if anyone could manage to dig through all the paper! Election day came and went, and finally we learned that we had elected as our class officers:

Donald Tank, President

Paul White, Vice President

Helen Tobin, Secretary

Geraldine DeNunzio, Treasurer

Elected to our Prom Committee were Mary Lou Sheehan, Audrey Joyce, Marylu Kennedy, Connie Salvato, and Shirley Matthews.

To some of the junior girls little pink envelopes were given, containing invitations to join the K. B., the girls' honor club. Although we wore our oldest clothes, and were prepared for only slightly less than mass murder, our initiation consisted of a candlelight ceremony — a little frightening. On the twelfth of February the K. B. held its informal at the Riverside Boat Club, with Freddie Sateriale and his orchestra supplying the music for our dancing. Not even the freezing temperatures, high winds, and sleet storm could dampen our spirits on such an enjoyable evening!

My money was the "gonest" by the time that my class ring had been paid for, but little did I realize that this expense was only the beginning! One of the most interesting days of the year was Career Day. After attending many lectures during the day, we had learned a great deal of first-hand information about the business world, and how to prepare ourselves for our future occupations.

April 29 — the loveliest night of the year — was the date of our junior prom. The Prom Committee did a wonderful job of decorating the ballroom of the Hotel Commander, and planning the program. The royal couple was Carol Rutkowski and Francis Tobin.

In the spring, a constitution was drawn up, and our Student Council was formed. To the council we elected Paul White, who was later elected president, Don Tank, Ronnie McGinnity, Frances Voto, and George Toomajian, as our representatives for the following year. And at this time, on the baseball diamond the C.H.L.S. team was well on its way to the Suburban League Championship, which we eventually won with a record of 10 wins and 2 losses. Eddie Moriarty and Ronnie McGinnity were chosen to be the co-captains of the defending champs for the '55 season.

Rhythm and blues had definitely arrived, and at the end of this year, it was quite correct to say, "Time to cut out and quit this scene" — outside of English class, of course! And so, we "cut out," with this happy thought — THREE flights of stairs to climb next year!

Dear Diary:

In case no one had realized it, the song way up on the Hit Parade in September, "The High and the Mighty" had been written especially for us seniors! To complete our little world on the third floor, we need only an express elevator which would run from 8:15 to 8:30 (because we are so tired in the morning), and immediately after our lunch period (because we never think that we can make it to the third floor at that time in four minutes.)! Despite everything that I had thought in previous years, the seniors did wear white bucks and knee-socks, did not lead gay, carefree lives, and did have something better to do than to misdirect freshmen!

Again, we became politicians on a small scale as the senior elections approached. When all the campaigning and shouting had died down, and the votes had been counted, our class officers were:

Christy Cupas, President
Mary Cincotta, Vice President
Gerri DeNunzio, Secretary
Jeanne Cronin, Treasurer

Helen Tobin, Barbara Murphy, Connie Salvato, Virginia Sheppard, Jean Panzino, and Cecelia Ledjite were elected to the Prom Committee. With the Senior Reception in such capable hands, it cannot help being a great success.

Although our Thanksgiving Day game with Rindge was rained out, the two teams met on the following Sunday to play their annual game. As far as Rindge was concerned, it might just as well have been rained out again, for the Latinites blanked their rivals with a 7-0 score!

During Christmas vacation, the Senior Year Book Record Hop was held in Rindge Gym, with Ned Powers as disc jockey. Since "just everybody" was there, our attempt to lower the cost of the Yearbook was successful.

The K. B. was quite active in making decorations for the Army Hospital at Christmastime, and in preparing for the Informal, which was held this year at the new Y.W.C.A. hall on the 15th of January. It turned out to be an overwhelming success and an evening enjoyed by all.

In January, the class elected Mary Cincotta as "good citizen," an award offered by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Early in February, the whole class enjoyed a School and Commerce Day, sponsored by the Rotary Club and the Chamber of Commerce.

Seventeen of the members of our class were elected to the National Honor Society. They were:

Leonard McCarthy	Dorothy Barry
Maureen Mockler	Claire Chapman
Franz Nauen	Josephine Ciccolo
David Ogden	Mary Cincotta
Lodia Silva	Jean Cronin
Gustave Solomons	Mary Daley
Laurice Tahmoush	Janet Giffen
Frances Voto	Sonia Hichun

Claire Wyner

We sincerely wish them the best of luck in all future endeavors.

After four wonderful years, we are very reluctant to leave these hallowed halls; but, as we set out to face the future, we are confident. For we have been well-prepared by our teachers and advisors throughout our high school careers. So, with a sigh of relief — "We made it" — we regretfully bring to a conclusion this chapter of our lives.

NATIONAL AND FOREIGN AFFAIRS

Foreign Relations

Last week President John Jordan delivered an ultimatum to Pastovia through his ministers, William McCarthy, Esther Eubanks, and Joseph Corkery, demanding the release of four American space cadets. The men, Francis Flaherty, Robert Haley, Charles Kelley, and John McCarthy are being held on charges of refusing to salaam before the Upper Pastovian Flag. To give strength to President Jordan's demand, the Joint Chiefs of Staff, General Theodore Bibeau of the Army, Colonel Fred Donahue of the Marines, Admiral Robert Lynch of the Navy, and General Lillian O'Connor of the Air Force, have sent the 777th fleet to the Pastovian shores. What Washington will decide to do is still uncertain.

The Nation

In the United States Senate, Republican Senator Ethel Canario and Democratic Senator Louise Colozzi haggled bitterly this week. The argument was over Chief Justice Thomas "King" Kilkelly's decision that selling home freezers to Eskimos in Northern Alaska is subject to federal anti-trust laws. The Federal government now intends to subpoena a Cambridge concern on charges of a monopoly in the business. The company is headed by Edward Fahey and Roger Dias.

Vice-President George Konrad, Secretary of State Phyllis Buda, and Secretary of the Treasury Beverly Porras held a conference in the Capitol last week to discuss the national budget. Their chief problem was the tremendous debt of the Massachusetts M. T. A., now headed by Franz "Duke" Nauen and Janet Murphy. During the past decade, the "orange fleet" has rolled up a deficit of $2,734,869.510.97.

Congressmen Thomas "Ruddy" Schuler and James Curcio have met stiff opposition in their drive for a National Prune Juice Week. Their opponents are a group sent by the dairy farmers of East Over-shoe. Comprising this delegation are Marilyn Noreika, Cynthia Capucci, Barbara Preston, Jean Cowan, Barbara Heath, and Myrna Reed.

On Beacon Hill last week, Governor James Mahoney, Lieutenant-Governor Richard Phelan, and state aides Lora Byrnes, William O'Brien, Walter Power, Jeanette Savoie, Claire Renna, and Armand St. Coeur, faced the problem of prison rioting in Charlestown State Prison. Deputy Paul Gargano held control of the prison in place of Warden Richard "Gunner" Kelly, who was away at a convention for prison wardens.

Many famous heads of penal institutions made the convention a noteworthy occasion. Among those present were Wardens Paul Walker of Alcatraz, Urban McClellan of Sing Sing, Lawrence Silva of Leavenworth, Peter Firchow of San Quentin, and Richard Hodgden of Michigan State Prison.

John Hanlon, F.B.I. Chief, recently denounced Sam Smedley III as Public Enemy No. 972 for robbing the National Drug Store chain, owned by Earl Dalrymple, Edmond Marshall, and Marjorie Keith.

Sally Madison and Rebecca Lewis are the new co-chairmen of the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Poodle Barbers.

Elaine Abrano, Barbara Dawda, and Fannie Smith are the new window cleaning directors for the United Nations and Lever Brothers Building in New York City.

PEOPLE

On June 10, 1965, at the Hotel Statler, the class of "55" of C.H.L.S. held their tenth annual reunion. Heading the celebrities were Robert Brisbane, captain of the Massachusetts State Police; Bob Ianazzi, the "salesman to the North Pole," who has been successfully selling Pogo sticks to penguins; Guido de Meo, president of Susan Sumner's Haberdashery; Mary Jamgochian, tonsorial artist; and Marilyn O'Connor, general manager of Gorin's stockroom. At the head table were seen John Walsh, famous forest ranger; Margaret Mahoney, president of the bricklayer's union; Diane Stevens, prima ballerina of the Ballet Russe; and Mary Cincotta, proprietor of Woolworth's modeling school.

There was a party for the Trans-World Airlines hostesses at the Sheraton Plaza last week. Very pretty in their uniforms were Mary Ann Sullivan, Patricia Dahl, Arlene McQuellan, Mary Jane Campbell, Frances Sullivan, Claire Chapman, and Josephine Aufiero. This group was being entertained by the renowned Captain Nancy O'Brien and Lieutenant Rita Peters, the first "Rocket Ship Mamas."

At Madison Square Garden this week, Beverly Nelson sponsored a worldwide hair styling contest. Among those in contention were Mary Tobin with her Italian "Dippy Doo;" Rosalie Maragioglio with her style "No Comment;" and Maureen Fitzgibbons with her Irish creation, "The Shamrock Straight-back." Theresa Giovino won through hard competition; her creation was "The Eagle With Short Feathers."

Well-known man about town Robert Fitzgerald was spotted with debutante Barbara Mader at Beverly Occhialini's Spaghetti House, where William Murphy is now a singing waiter.

Rosalie Plouffé, famous personnel manager of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company;

Velma Bolden, and Lorraine Paynter have been accepted on the social register of Park Avenue.

Cambridge, Massachusetts, last week turned out to laud Vincent Gravalese for his faithful setrvce on the corner of Trowbridge Street and Broadway. Traffic Officer Gravalese and his assistant, Leonard Gilbert, have been responsible for the smooth flow of traffic running into Harvard Square.

MOVIES — RADIO — TV

Last week, on a spectacular world telecast, the annual Academy Award presentations were made in Hollywood. The "actor of the year" award went to Richard Joaquin for his role in The Life of Mario Lanza. Emily Banks walked away with the Oswald as "actress of the year" for her dramatic role in Gone Was His Wind. Supporting actress awards were given to both Phyllis Bantz, for her picture, Sneak of Araby; and Laurice Tahmoush of Haji Haba fame. The "best supporting actor of the year" was Edward "Toby" Lynch, who was seen in Thirteen Tall Men. The final award was given to The Creature From The Black Lagoon Returns, which stars Francis Murphy and Marie Toscano, as the worst picture of the year.

A new dancing group appeared this week on a national television show. It is the Lisa Bari Dancers, which is made up of Yvonne Bradbury, Janice Jackson, Nancy Hill, Helen Tobin, and Diane Scaringi. Liz Houlihan and Matilda Hall are the choreographers.

Mary Anne Stagliano is the new director of the Time For Teeny Show on ICU-TV. You will remember Miss Stagliano for her fine work in helping Dorothy Brown and Pat Drinkard install telephones in bird cages.

An unfortunate incident occurred on Super Circus, when clowns Gus Solomons and Paul Natale received injuries after their toy car went out of control.

Nite Bird Theater presented last night for the 38th time Son of Tarzan, starring Cantabs William Silva as Tarzan and Loretta Miceli as Jane. During the commercials of this program, Frances Voto and Luigi Scotti were seen selling Instant Pizza.

The Swiss Bell Ringing Ensemble, composed of Roger Clark, James Rogers, Thomas Flaherty, Robert McArthur, and Carol Ann Wheaton, made a successful return to television this week.

The Captain Video Show has chosen two appropriate stars, Lawrence O'Connell and Helen Philbrick.

For afternoon TV fans, four new shows have been presented: Cooking Shelf, with James "Bobo" Castriotta; Ding Dong School, with Eleanor Turpin; Voluptua, with Nancy Dall; and The Continental, with Robert Michelson.

Studio .01 will, in following weeks, present Carol Ingham's prize western, Sane; Jae Park's, Hub! Noon!; and Patricia Sylvia's, Under the Waterfront.

Cecelia Ledtje, Miss Pot of Gold of 1965 and Queen of Harvard University, made a special appearance on television last week, receiving the Pulitzer Prize for her novel, From Eternity Back To Here.

ART — BOOKS — MUSIC

BOOKS

Assorted Press last week announced the ten best sellers for the year:

1. Gone With The BreezeGermaine Harding

ART

Last week, Boston's Metropolitan Art Museum gave a revolutionary conception of art. Among the pictures shown were Joan Chaulk's, Whistler's Father; Barbara Reynold's, Feet of Time; Elizabeth Fleet's, Amnesia; and Catherine Spero's, Mother Lisa. Last year the Museum had a display Sunset in Darkest Africa, by Dorothy Paul; Australian Snow Scene, by Eileen Goddard; Killer on the Keys, by Paula Hackett; and the Beginning of the Road, by Diane Edd.

MUSIC

On the night of June 7, 1965, a spectacular jazz festival was held at Boston's Low Lid. Among the prominent stars performing were Amy Sears and her Fur Lasses, which consists of Doria Campbell, Lydia Nichols, Mary O'Connell, Marjorie Haak, Margaret Mahoney, and Marylu Kennedy. Other star vocalists were blues singers Richie "Kat" Joaquin and Mary "Velvet" Daley. The instrumentalists were Rita Ward, with her "Dangerous Drums;" Lodia Silva and her "Crazy Clarinet;" and Jean Panzino with her "Vivacious Violin." Marguerite Freeman and Alfred Sealy hit the ivories with their rendition of Tremble, Tumble, and Toss, written by Richard Lyons and Joanne Rudolph. The mistress of ceremonies was the renowned disc jockey, Shirley "Mama" Mathews.

SPORTS

Baseball

In the "House of Ruth," Ron "Flash" McGinnity pitched the Cambridge Red Sox to a shut-out victory, 6-0, over the strong Yankee nine. Cambridge scored all six runs in the fifth inning, when Pete Budryk smashed three home runs to spoil "Badman" Billy Fowler's record. An outstanding defensive game was turned in by "Shifty" Paul Hines, the Cantab third baseman.

Celebrities

The great sport celebrities of the country met at the convention of AFAPC (Association for the Advancement and Preservation of Chess). The World's one and only Yo-Yo champion, Chris Cupas, presided over the banquet, held at Russell Field in North Cambridge. His assistants were Daniel "Wildman" Thibault, national amateur wrestling champ; Bob Miley, lightweight boxing champ of India; and Robert Hoey, Florida's state skiing champ. Seated at the head table were Janet "Tuffy" Giffen of Roller Derby fame; Irving Rogert and Charles Chase, Davis Cup winners; and Mexico's Señor William Tansey, famed bullfighter.

Hoopy

The S.B.A. (Screwballs Basketball Association) last week announced the starting teams for the All-Star Charity game at the War Memorial Gym in Cambridge. All proceeds of the game will be collected by Paul Walker and go to the P.W.B.A.F. (Paul Walker's Bank Account Fund). The Lineup will be:

East	West
Paul White—Celtics R. G.	Edith De Vito
Phil "Swish" Athanos—Celtics L. G.	Phyllis Cogan
Phil Flanagan	Nancy Allosso
Toby Lynch	Lorraine St. Martin
Donald Carney	Peggy Mantineo

Olympics

United States women made a good showing in the Women's Olympic games at Munich, Germany. Pat "Torch" Higgins of Tennessee defeated Pat Landry of California in the pole vault with a jump of 20 feet. (without a pole yet!) A new feature in the games was the bubble gum contest, which Nancy Dall won singlehandedly. On another part of the games, Maureen Mockler and Barbara Kelly won the deep sea diving contest. The huge pool, filled with waters of Upper Pastovia, was dug by Claire Wyner and Leonora Hazard, the fastest ditch diggers in the world.

Oldies

Edward "Flash" Moriarty stars in a new baseball movie, "Runaway With the Bases." Lawrence Donovan and Robert Jackson also star with "Flash" in this picture. This trio was once the famed infield of the Bloomer Girls.

Wrestling

At Marigold Arena there is to be a spectacular wrestling doubleheader next Wednesday night. "Flying" Faith Pilgrim will be matched with "Slippery" Jean McDermott. The other attraction will be a tag team match, bringing the team of Allen Wegman and Helena Patnaude against the "Deadly Duo," John Mullane and Helen Lampron. The entire affair will be referred by Joseph "Biffer" Sullivan, former heavyweight champion of the world.

'Round About Town

Beverly Snow, Sylvia Gardiner, Shirley Shackford, and Mary Anne Borges have just conquered Mount Everest on bicycles.

Dorothy Giffen and Estelle Olson are calling bets at Suffolk Downs where Carolyn Faucette rode six winners last week in the daily double. Marie Wilkin-son and Mae Mangano have just been named "Pretzel Twisting Champions of 1965!"

Shirley Harris has been appointed head coach of the Girls' Football Team at Boston College.

EDUCATION

Sane?, in reporting on the newly constructed gymnasium in Cambridge, sent Laurence Donovan to get a firsthand look at the building. Here, in his own words, is his report:

"The gym, dedicated as a war memorial, is equipped with all the necessary furnishings, such as ski tows, pool tables, and stationary chess tables. It even has a basketball court. Arnold Nelson and Dorothy Brown, designers of the gym, along with the Board of Directors, made up of Paul Kelley, Thomas McCarron, Fred Grover, and June Marshall, accompanied your reporter through the gym. The gymnasium has a well-trained staff, and a list of instructors follows: Donald Bowers and Eleanor Morris, swimming; Harold Alexander and John Supple, boxing; Dorothy Nicoloro and Marylu Kennedy, tumbling; Joan Boudreau and Arleen Charnitsky, judo; and Audrey Joyce and Joan Keefe, billiards. A new course introduced to the school is badmitten, which is instructed by William Clayton and Francis Tobin.

The newly-formed Cambridge School Committee, Barbara Corcoran, Marilyn Sullivan, Joan Temple, and Christine Stathopoulos, has approved the appointments of several new teachers. Pat Alward and Shireen Sneider have joined the faculty as dramatic teachers; Bob Gigante and Robert Landry as ballet instructors; Kathleen LeGrande as home economics teacher; and Mary Szulewski and Barbara Dawda as cooking teachers. The bookkeeping department is headed by Leonard Madden; Latin department, by Michael Thomas; Sanskrit, by David Ogden; and Health, John McMahon.

The committee has also announced the choosing of Richard Cawley and Peter Ottaviano as cooks in the School Lunch Program.

SPECIAL ITEM: Nan Henderson has been appointed Dean of Freshman Girls at Notre Dame!

MEDICINES AND SCIENCE

After years of thorough research, Jane Edwards, a staff member at Cambridge City Hospital, completed an X-Ray machine that takes pictures in 3-D (with technicolor). Among her associates were Barbara Alleyne, Sonia Hichun, Marlene Jackson, and Leo Lyons. These technicians are now working on a process whereby one need not wear a television blue shirt to be examined.

The nurses at Cambridge City Hospital held their annual banquet at Van Occhialini's Spaghetti Parlor last weekend. The guest speaker was Donald Tank, prominent physician, who spoke on the importance of blood in our body. Some of the nurses who attended were Olivia Cragwell, Patricia Dottin, Frances Ferraro, Judy Haskell, Virginia Lowe, Noreen Nangle, Rosalie Parachanian, Marie Poleo, Geraldine DeNunzio, Miriam Young, Ernestine Hunt, and Jo-Anne Rudolph.

Carol Alderman, noted psychologist, recently returned from the jungles of Africa with her secretary, Helen Chien). Miss Alderman has written a thesis called, The Mind of a Head-Hunter.

Through the combined efforts of Ruth Rosenberg, Donald Southall, and Pauline Rendall, a new food has been discovered. This nutrient, Preefers (people prefer to eat 99 45/100% pure Preefers), grows on the shady side of Mount Massachusetts. Edith deVito has already started the migration to this mountain.

Bernard Gray received the Nobel Peace Prize for his outstanding work in creating a new spider web, which will not catch flies. Such a web, theoretically, will preserve the peace between spiders and flies.

Dr. Dana Levine and his assistants Joan Novia, Jane O'Donoghue, and Joyce Reddick, left Boston's Logan International Airport last night. Their destination is West Rinsovia, where they are going to investigate the reason why inhabitants there have three eyes, but only one ear.

Donald Keefe, veterinarian, working with opticians Edward Altman, Carol Korb, Connie Salvato, and Mary Lou Sheehan, have perfected eyeglasses for unicorns.

Joan McMahon, Beverly Shepard, Virginia Shepard, and Cleo Silver have invented false teeth that have built-in toothpaste (chlorophyll yet!!!). As a result, they are always clean.

Doctors Lois Burgess, Virginia Ugolini, Arthur Gaskin, and James "20-20" Merchant are still carrying on research at Muscle Beach to determine why water is needed to have a beach.

The wharf at Lake Walden draws many entomologists at midnight. Last week, Jean Houston, Glenn Allen, Pat Maguire, and Roger Clark were seen studying there.

This week the country awaits the arrival of Helen Economou, Edward Kyett, Virginia Thomas, and Marcia Andelman, who are attempting the first 'round-the-world trip in a flying saucer.

Dorothy Blanchard, who is secretary to Carol Swanson, a well-known tree surgeon, was seen talking to Karen Nilson, owner of the You-Name-Them-We-Grow-Them-Nurseries, whose pear trees are sprouting pine cones.

Norma Steph and Priscilla Brogan have discovered a new way for removing wrinkles from prunes.

Philip Morgan has recently been appointed "Bird-Watcher-in-Chief" of the Cambridge City Hospital Bird Watcher's Club.

FLASH!!

Delores Nicoli has hired Marie Mastrangelo and Freida Macaro as waitresses for her new restaurant, "The Pizza Palace." Joan Bentubo is the gracious hostess. All Cambridge High Alumni of 1955 are invited for a free pizza.

Mary Ann McGorty has been elected president of McGorty's Merchandise for Midgets, Inc.

Marcia Monteith and Katy McDonald are the new co-owners of Brigham's in Harvard Square.

Marilyn Tyler, Beverly O'Connor, and Janet Stefanelli are secretaries to George Toomajian, President of the National Shoemaker's Society.

Evelyn Doyle and Carol Rutkowski are the new policewomen directing traffic in Central Square.

Marion Jenkins and Dorothy Barry have discovered a new hair tonic which keeps hair from standing on ends during horror movies.

As Ruth White walked into the Employment Office to seek a job, she saw many of her ex-classmates in line ahead of her. They were Marcia Foley, Maureen Corcoran, Katy Jasper, Barbara Murphy, and Phyllis Havenanian.

Loretta Paine and Judith Quimby are teaching parakeets how to talk (in a foreign language, no less!!)

Virginia Iandelli and Theresa Manganaro have discovered a new way for making elbow macaroni.

Nancy Cadogan and Barbara Sullivan have discovered a new machine for tying shoe laces for fat people who can't even see their shoes.

We are now at the Skinned Cat Room in the Lion's Den, where a secretaries' meeting is now in session. Presiding as co-chairmen are Josephine Ciccolo and Marlene Ellison. Guest eaters are Mary Lou Lloyd, Marie Luther, and Mary Joy.

The Review

During the school year of 1954-5, the Cambridge Review made its seventy-first consecutive series of publications. The literary staff, composed of carefully selected members of the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes, was as follows: Editor, David F. Ogden; writers of the "Spotlight," Mary Jane Campbell and Ruth Rosenberg; Freshman notes, Carol Alderman and Carol Korb; Sports Editor, Richard Cawley; Club Notes Editor, Franz Nauen; Music Editor, Marcia Kaufman; Fashions, Emily Banks; Alumni Notes, Harold Alexander. Jocelyn Flamand, Leonard McCarthy and Paul Hines assisted in the preparation of various columns and served as "trouble shooters."

The secretarial staff included: Claire Chapman, Arleen Charnitsky, Phyllis Cogan, Nancy Dall, Janet Giffin, Mary Jamgochian, Maureen Mockler, and Lodia Silva. The business staff was comprised of Regina Cole, Mary Szulewsky, and Ruth White. Edward Altman, John Boyd, Elizabeth Conant, Margaret Keith, George Konrad, Mary Marcucci, Gerald Rosenberg, and Jeanette Savoie were all on the advertising staff, a very vital department in any newspaper. Joan Chaulk, David Kingsbury, and William Landry managed the art department. Dana Levine teamed up with Gunter Vilbig to produce some very fine photographic material.

Thanks are due to the above mentioned members of the staff, and also to all those not acknowledged who generously pitched in and helped make the seventy-first year of the Review as successful as it was.

Student Council

Since its founding only a year ago, the Student Council has already achieved a great deal through the industry and initiative of its members. Moreover, this same enthusiasm and aggressiveness prompted many interesting and well attended meetings. The Council discussed vigorously, sometimes with great dissention and disparity of opinion each problem brought to it. The ability of the members to arrive at a sound and practical plan of operation is unique.

Among the attainments of the Council for the past year were the organization of a schedule for school affairs of the various school organizations as well as the arousal of enthusiasm in soliciting REVIEW Subscriptions.

The Student Council stores a magnitude of potential ability which can be used to achieve even greater ends in the future.

K. B.

In October, the K. B. began a gala year of social events with the initiation of the new members. The traditional candlelight ceremony was held at the president's home, where the unsuspecting juniors met a few surprises. Due to the enthusiasm and the untiring efforts of the girls, the Winter Informal, held in January, proved to be highly successful and enough money was raised so that two deserving senior members will be awarded a hundred dollar scholarship each.

In a more serious vein, the girls generously volunteered their services to the Red Cross. In December, we made decorations for the Christmas Party at the Murphy General Hospital. Other members worked in the Red Cross Office while still others served refreshments in the Bloodmobile.

The officers for this year were: President, Jeanne Cronin; Secretary, Joan Temple; Treasurer, Carol Alderman.

In closing, we would like to thank our capable advisors, Miss McGirr and Miss Russell, without whose help, this year would not have been so successful.

The Dramatic Club

Under the capable direction of Miss Hartigan and Mr. Guest, the Dramatic Club was very successful this year. It was a year that we all enjoyed. Our officers were: Gustave Solomons, President; Michael Farrell, Vice President; Shireen Sneider, Secretary; Lucille Magliozzi, Treasurer. The Executive Board consisted of Patricia Alward, Joan Temple, Richard Cawley, Jocelyn Flammand and Marylu Kennedy.

The first event of the year was an evening program for the entertainment of the Parent Teacher Association. In December we presented the annual Christmas Pageant which as always, was very impressive. A few nights after the Pageant, the cast and Dramatic Club Members ushered in the Christmas Season with a Christmas Party at the new Y.W.C.A. This was the most successful Dramatic Club party of recent years, with an attendance of over fifty members and guests. Many former members of the Dramatic Club returned to help us celebrate.

In January the club presented a special Dramatic Club Assembly for the Freshmen. "Curtain Time" was presented on February 11. The plays chosen this year were "The Taming of the Shrew," "Antic Spring," "What A Life" and "Kitchen Incident." The play presented for the Massachusetts Drama Festival was "The Taming of the Shrew." Chris Cupas, Joan Temple and Gustave Solomons received individual acting awards for their performances. As an added honor the play was selected to represent "good High School theater" by the New England Theater Conference and was presented at their Secondary School Meeting held at Tufts College.

We closed a very wonderful and exciting year with a "Superstition Dance" held on May 13 at the Y.W.C.A.

We wish to thank Miss Hartigan and Mr. Guest for the many afternoons that they have spent working with us. It was greatly appreciated by all the members and the officers of the club.

Girls' Athletic Association

Another full and enjoyable year has passed, upon which we can look back with pride. The G. A. A. Season of 1955 will hold many happy memories for the members of our organization. We wish the G. A. A. equal success in the coming years.

Our first activity of the year was the Freshman Party — a day for every freshman to remember. The initiation throughout the day was followed by a reception after school.

Then came the G. A. A. Formal at the Hotel Commander with Bob Norris and his orchestra. Arlene Thompson was chosen queen and everyone had a wonderful evening.

Jean Caruso's Christmas Party was the highlight of the Christmas Season. Tap dancing was done by Freshmen and Sophomores from the various gym classes, carolling by the groups, topped by a visit from Santa (Red Linsky), who distributed gifts to the children present.

Between January and April, the G. A. A. held a roller skating and a bowling party and also a record hop which were all successful.

Our last and most important function of the year was the G. A. A. Banquet. At this event, the Seniors were presented their athletic awards and trophies and the installation of next year's officers was held.

The officers of the G. A. A. thank all the members for the success of our club. Our special thanks go to the many teachers who supported the club, particularly Miss Hyde and Miss George, our faculty advisors, for their patient and untiring service which has helped us to make this a successful year.

Glee Club

Our Glee Club has grown in number and size in our four years at school, largely due to the untiring efforts of our Director, Mr. Dominic Amoruso.

The club is made up of a Mixed Glee Club, a Girls' Choir, a Girls' Glee Club, and a Solo Group. During the school year, the Club has successfully performed at various assemblies and ceremonies.

For the Armistice (Veterans') Day Program, the Club presented a beautiful arrangement of background music appropriate to the mood of the day.

The melodious strains provided for the Christmas Pageant by the Glee Club surpassed those of all other years. The Caroling of the choir in the corridors afforded the opportunity for the Club to give an outstanding and joyful presentation of the well-known Christmas Carols.

In January, the Glee Club was enthusiastically received by the students at a Glee Club Assembly, featuring light and popular musical selections.

In May, we hope to continue on the high level of successful presentations that have brought recognition to the school in the last two Northeastern Massachusetts Music Festivals.

We take pride in the calibre of the work of the Glee Club this year and are deeply grateful to all who made this possible.

Junior Red Cross

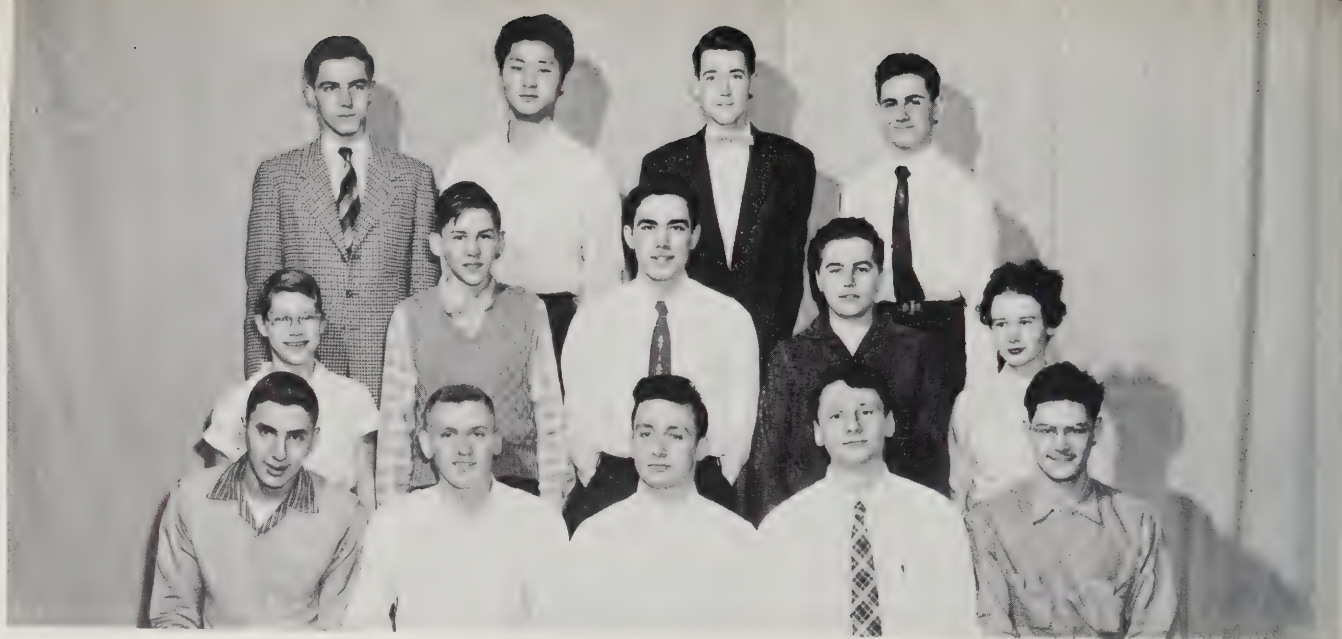

In our school, the Junior Red Cross is a non-profit organization, made up of nearly 100% of the student body. Early in the school year, a membership committee, consisting of home room representatives, conducts a drive for members. Any student who donates one cent or does any volunteer work is eligible for membership.

The work of the Junior Red Cross is varied. Magazines are collected for the local hospitals. The Art Department paints murals, makes favors and carnival hats for the under-privileged children of Cambridge servicemen and the cooking classes make cakes and candies for the various military hospitals.

The Junior Red Cross takes this opportunity to thank the K. B. Club for its able assistance at the Bloodmobile Drives at Harvard University and M. I. T. and for the cheery decorations for the hospitals; the G. A. A. Club for its able assistance in collecting toys; Miss Marion L. Ralph, Director of the Junior Red Cross in Cambridge, for her suggestions; Miss Alice A. Wark, Teacher-Sponsor, for keeping the ball rolling; and our deepest thanks to all the teachers and heads of departments for their aid.

Chess Club

In three months of tournament play, the C.H.L.S. Chess Team has compiled a record of five wins, three defeats, and two ties.

The outstanding individual record of the season is held by Peter Firchow, with eight wins, one defeat, and one tie. Other members of the Chess Club who have participated in tournament play are: Harold Alexander, Edward Altman, James Gower, Leo Lyons, Lawrence O'Connell, Jae Parks, Justin Ryan, Donald Southall, and Gunter Vilbig.

Officers for 1954-55 include: Leo Lyons, President; Peter Firchow, Vice President; Lawrence O'Connell, Treasurer; Harold Alexander, Secretary.

Projection Club

The Projection Club, a division of the audio-visual department, is under the direction of Mr. H. Clayton Haley.

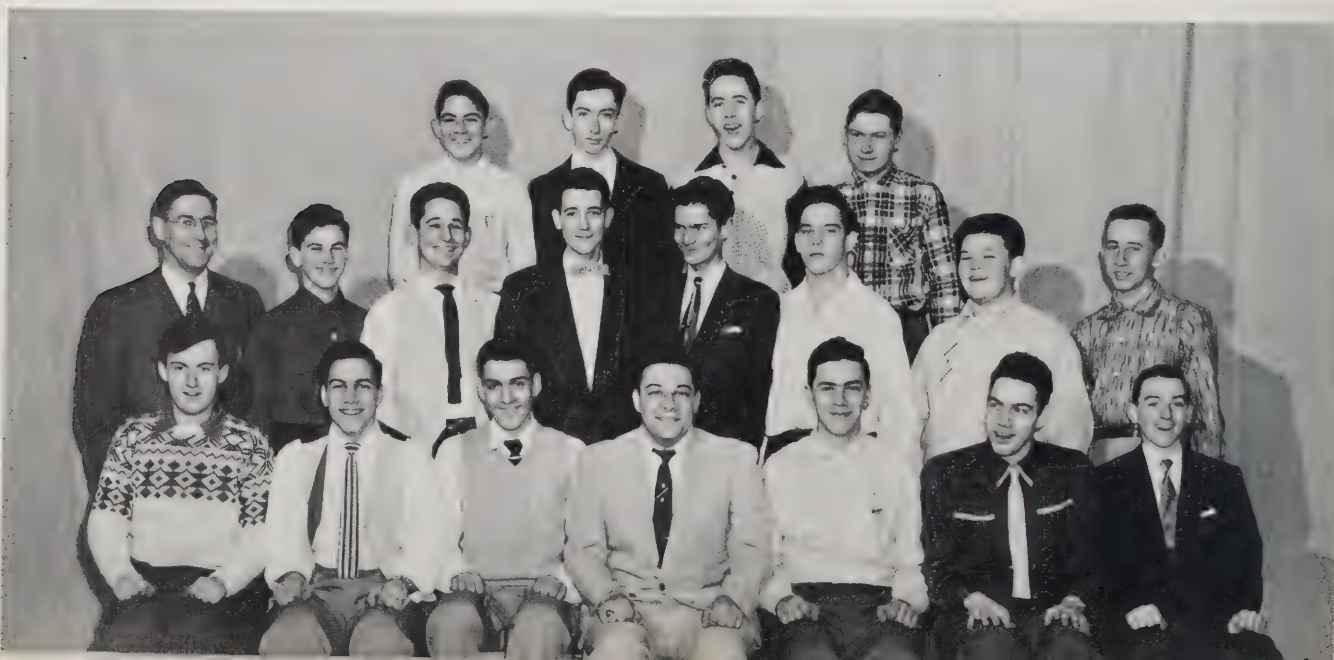

The club is in operation throughout the entire school year, six periods per day. Although the main function of the organization is the projecting of motion pictures, it also has many other ways of administering educational aids through the use of tape and wire recorders, and lantern slides.

The student who joins as a freshman usually remains a member all four years. While a member, he learns how to operate the equipment and make on-the-spot minor repairs. The club also functions at all assemblies. These assignments are entrusted to the senior members.

When the student graduates or leaves the Projection Club, he takes his newly acquired knowledge with him into the business world.

The French Club

The French Club of Cambridge High and Latin School enjoyed one of its finest seasons this past year, under the capable direction of Miss Gertrude Parsons, faculty advisor. The officers for this year are Jeanne Cronin, President; Lewis Patchivos, Vice President; Shireen Snider, Secretary; Frances Andelman, Treasurer; and Carol Alderman, Program Committee Chairman.

Our first meeting consisted of a very informative discussion on France with attractive slides taken by Miss Florence M. Hunter on one of her recent visits abroad. Representing the French Club at the annual Christmas Program of the combined foreign language clubs were our president and several members.

The most attractive affairs held by the French Club were the trip to the "Cinema Français" and "Patisserie," together with the dinner held some time later at a typical French Provincial Restaurant.

Hoping that next year's club will be as successful as that of this year, we thank all those who worked untiringly for our pleasure and benefit.

LEWIS J. PATCHIVOS

The German Club

The German Club of '55 has been a very successful one. The officers of the Club were elected at the first meeting and the results are as follows:

Virginia Thomas — President
 Gus Solomons — Vice President
 Gunter Vilbig — Secretary
 John Phelps — Treasurer

The meetings are held on the first Tuesday of every month and the dues are 10 cents per meeting.

The German Club had a successful Christmas Party, at which German Carols were played and sung. Refreshments were also served. At a meeting in the future, we plan to have a German disc-jockey program at which German recordings will be played.

The Club plans to visit a German Restaurant in the Spring, a trip which should prove most enjoyable for those who have never been to a German Restaurant or eaten German Food. The German Club of 1955 sincerely hopes that future clubs will have as much success. But all this would not have been possible if it had not been for the cooperation and help from our German teacher Miss Wait.

VIRGINIA THOMAS

The Italian Club

Il Circolo Italiano has been a success this year. The Club has about fifty members making it the largest group in years. We have meetings every month under the direction of President, Antoinette Evangeliste, and Frances Ferraro, Secretary-Treasurer. At the meetings, plans are made for parties and other activities. At Christmas, the Italian, French, and Spanish Clubs put on a fine show. Antoinette Evangeliste read The Nativity of Christ from the Bible, followed by carols sung in Italian by the members. It was a treat to all.

During this year, we have been fortunate to enjoy some beautiful movies about Italy. This boot-shaped country proved to be very lovely and also to be a place of important history, art, and literature. We wish to give our thanks to Miss Hunter for showing us some slides which she took on her tour of Italy.

As the year is not yet completed, we have plans to visit an Italian restaurant and see an Italian movie. We are under the direction of Miss Supple, to whom we wish to give our sincerest thanks for her great help in making our club a success this year.

DOROTHY NICOLORO

The Spanish Club

The Spanish Club, under the guidance of Miss Cox, held its election of officers during the first meeting in October. Those elected were: Lodia Silva, President; Donald Southall, Vice President; Judy Haskell, Secretary; and Mary Jane Campbell, Treasurer. Faith Pilgrim was chosen to head the Program Committee, which includes Richard Joyce, Robert Iannazzi, Luis Andrade, Nicholas Demos, and Elodia Fantauzzi.

The Club was fortunate in having several interesting speakers at the monthly meetings. Miss Parsons related some of her experiences from her recent trip to Mexico. In December, the modern clubs combined and had a Christmas party with carol singing in Spanish, French, and German.

Throughout the year, the Club's activities were very successful and the graduating seniors wish the same luck to the club in the future.

Drill Team

Time marches on; and again this year, the drill team marches on. With a squad of thirty-two members composed mostly of sophomores and juniors, the drill team lead by Joan Temple, carried out in military fashion some of the most difficult precision maneuvers ever to be accomplished at Cambridge High and Latin.

The highlight of the drill season was at the Rindge and Latin game, where approximately four thousand fans cheered the recently formed band, cheerleaders, and drill team.

Cheer Leaders

The cheerleaders started the year with much practice and enthusiasm. Each time our boys won a football game, the momentum picked up. The squad was rewarded for its untiring efforts with new skirts.

This year brought a closer tie of friendship between Rindge and Latin, when the girls showed good sportsmanship by rooting for their arch rival, Rindge, at one of its scheduled games. At the Rindge and Latin game, our little mascot, Janet Benn, made a tremendous hit with all the spectators.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

Right now, the girls' basketball team is in the midst of its season. The playing of the Senior and Junior Varsity has been excellent. Both teams started off the right way by winning their first game against Malden.

Pat Landry holds the honor of being Captain of the Senior Varsity and Mary Cincotta, the Junior Varsity. Under the fine leadership of Miss Hyde and Miss George, and with the good playing and sportsmanship of the girls, we are sure that this year we will have the best girls' basketball team that C.H.L.S. has ever had.

Football

Although this year's team won only three of its games, it always gave a good account of itself against strong opposition.

We opened the season with a 19-7 win over Winthrop with Jeff Linnehan, Peter Budryk, and Paul Walker scoring the touchdowns. The following week the powerful Melrose High teams scored a 25-12 win over Latin at Melrose.

Next on the list was the highly touted Malden Catholic Club. The boys did a tremendous job against them, but lost the game 20-15.

Our boys turned in their best game of the year by defeating their city rival, Rindge 7-0 at Russell Field.

Paul Walker was outstanding in that game when he scored the only touchdown of the day.

The team was composed mostly of seniors, with only a few juniors and sophomores. The senior members were co-captains Paul Walker and Eddie Moriarty, Paul White, Richie Phelan, Richie Cawley, Larry Donovan, Earl Dalrymple, "Chuckie" Bush, Peter Budryk, Donald Tank, Tommy Schuler, and Fred Donahue.

Underclass lettermen were next year's captain "Buck" Coady, Warren Sheehan, Jeff Linnehan, Mike Tierney, Nick Demos, John Kennedy, and Louis Photopoulos.

Hockey

This year's team was ably captained by capable Ron McGinnity. The Cantabs, who placed their last season's goalie, Lee Parks, on the G. B. I. All-Stars, have another outstanding candidate in their skillful goalie, Bill Tansey.

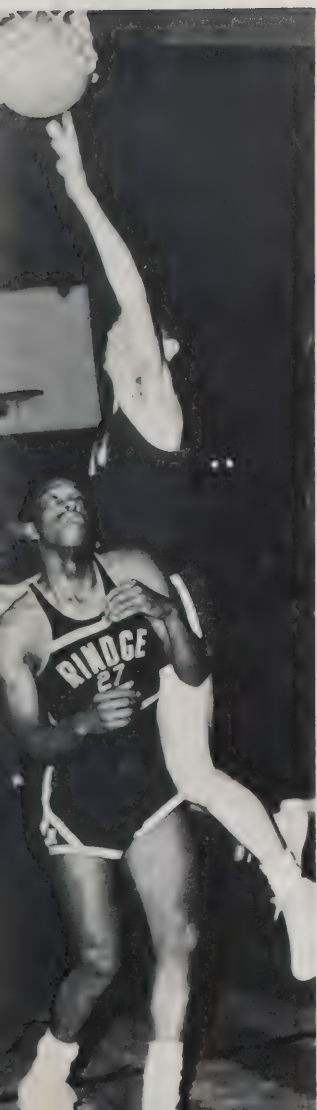

Latin's starting team consists of seniors. Ed Moriarty and Jim Merchant form the defense; in front of them line up Don Keefe, Bill McCarthy, and Ron McGinnity. Jim Mahoney is on the second team.

Although our boys did not do as well as we hoped, we were proud of the fine spirit of sportsmanship that prevailed throughout the season.

RICHARD CAWLEY

Basketball

The Suburban League, of which C.H.L.S. is a member, is one of the toughest leagues in the state. Our basketball team was not supposed to fare too well this year but with a terrific start, the Cantabs shot their way into the Tech Tournament.

Paul White, captain and playmaker, Bob Brisbane whose set shot put the team back into the race time and again, Phil Athanas and Dick Phelan inside men, Earl Dalrymple, Mike Taney and Phil Flanagan lofty centers, and Jim Curcio, Jeff Linehan, and Paul Sullivan great ball handlers and set shot artists, comprised the Cantabs' varsity squad.

We owe the success we had to the fine training of our new coach, Joseph Sheehan.

First Row (Left to Right): J. Castriotta; J. Corcoran; L. Photopoulos; R. Cawley; L. Jaquith, Captain; T. McCarron; R. Haley; N. Demos.

Third Row (Left to Right): P. Green, Manager; G. Daniel; F. Haley; C. Cupas; R. Owens; E. Lowe; R. Phelan; J. Cockery; J. Jordan.

Track

Captained by Larry Jaquith, the track team galloped through a fairly successful season.

Suffering the loss of an outstanding junior, our track squad was not supposed to fare too well. However, Captain Jaquith became the state's 1000-yard-run champ, with the relay team finishing a brilliant fourth.

We wish to thank our coach, Mr. Murphy, for his superior supervision and guidance.

ROBERT GIGANTE

Golf

Captained by Jim Curcio, the Cantabs stroked their way through a fine season.

Consistently, the team finished on the Fresh Pond links, with envious scores.

We wish to thank all the players, and our inspiring coach, Mr. Dave Ronan, whose able guidance was a credit to the school.

JIM CURCIO

Tennis

Captained by Ronald Carlisle, the Cantabs, although they did not win the championship, finished high in league standings. Having a very small team, the Redmen were picked to finish last in the league, but the end of the year showed that the predictions were wrong.

We owe our success to our fine coach, Mr. Cohen, whose patient drilling and able supervision were great assets, as always, to our team.

We wish him success in his coming years.

PAUL WALKER

Baseball

Captained by Tom Bergantino, the Cantab nine, for the first time in ten years, batted their way to the Suburban League Championship. Although a small team, the Redmen nevertheless compiled one of the highest team batting averages in the state. Based upon this fact, they were invited to the Massachusetts Baseball Tournament at Braves Field. After a brilliant upset over previously undefeated G. B. I.

Champs, Dorchester, the Cantabs were unable to beat a great Wellesley team.

We owe our success to our great coach, Mr. Foley, whose patience (and ulcers) were stretched to unbelievable lengths. We wish him the best of luck in his coming years as coach, and firmly believe that he will always have the Cantabs at the apex of the league.

EDWARD FAHEY

Epilogue

After reading this year book, which is but a symbol of all the good friends and the nostalgic experiences which we shared during our four years at C. H. L. S., how we shall yearn to be back once again in the crowded corridors and classrooms, eagerly reliving those pleasant memories which cannot easily be forgotten!
